Course details

Course Venue:	Desert Sky Quarter Horse & Calico Paint Stud facilities 1.1 km out of Karibib (see map).
Date:	20 – 25 August (School Holidays)
Accommodation:	Klippenberg Country Club (KCC) Option 1: Camping facilities with shared ablution. Campers need to bring own camping gear and bedding or caravans. Option 2: Bungalows with own ablution. There are 2 x bungalows with double beds and 8 x bungalows with 2 single beds. Bungalows are supplied with beds, bedding and own ablution. Early booking is essential as Mine guests also make use of the KCC.
Meals:	Under the 'All Meals' option breakfast, lunch and supper will be supplied by KCC. This includes limited water and cold drinks but a cash bar is available. Own supplies can also be bought from town. If you want to self cater – please indicate as such on the registration form.
Stabling:	20 open paddocks for mares or geldings on first come basis, no stallion-proof facilities unfortunately. Please bring own feed for the week. AGRA Karibib usually have lucerne and concentrates in stock but please check before hand if you want to buy here.
Tack:	Own tack including saddle, saddle pad, headstall and halter. Karibib doesn't get too cold but if your horse usually sleeps inside you might want to bring his / her blanket. There is a lock up facility for feed and tack and a security guard will be present every night.
Course Fees:	On the registration form there is a table to calculate amounts payable. Please note that camping spots are allocated per family of 4 max – only charge to once per family. Rooms are charged per person sharing and therefore charged to each person. If you want to enter for double sessions, please double the course fees as well. The second session can only be allocated if there is space available though, as we want to enter as many riders as possible.

Course Program

- Tuesday, 20 August - arrival & saddle up for tack fitment check
- Wednesday, 21 August to Friday, 23 August
 - full day course with each rider allocated an hour session in the morning and an hour session in the afternoon, 2-3 riders per session only;
 - Lynn recommends that participants spend their non-riding time watching riders being tutored as a lot is learnt this way;
 - riders can also use the non-riding time to practice the obstacle course;
- Saturday, 24 August - show prep, VRH conformation class show and recap
- Sunday, 25 August - brunch, closure & departure
